

Edgewell Personal Care Announces Sale of Feminine Care Business to Essity for $340M

11/12/25

Transaction streamlines Edgewell's portfolio and allows the personal care brand to focus on areas of competitive leadership

SHELTON, Conn., Nov. 12, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Edgewell Personal Care Company (NYSE: EPC) today announced that it has entered into a definitive agreement to sell its feminine care business to Essity, a leading global health and hygiene company based in Sweden, for $340 million.

The transaction is expected to close in the first quarter of calendar 2026, subject to customary closing conditions, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals. Edgewell's feminine care business includes Playtex®, Stayfree®, Carefree® and o.b.®. Edgewell intends to use the net proceeds from the sale, after taxes and transaction costs, primarily to strengthen its balance sheet while continuing to invest in the long-term growth of its core businesses.

"This transaction marks a pivotal step in Edgewell's transformation. By selling our Feminine Care business to Essity, we are sharpening our focus on our core categories, strengthening our financial position, and positioning Edgewell for sustainable, long-term growth," said Edgewell President and CEO Rod Little. "This is a win for our shareholders who will benefit from a more agile and focused company; for our customers, who will continue to receive innovative products and dedicated service; and for our employees, who will have new opportunities for growth and success with Essity, a global leader in health and hygiene."

"I'm excited to further grow these well-known brands by welcoming them into our bold and purpose-driven feminine care business. With this acquisition we are building a stronger personal care business in North America, in line with our strategy to focus on high yielding categories in attractive geographies," says Ulrika Kolsrud, President and CEO of Essity.

Edgewell will work closely with Essity to ensure a smooth transition for employees, customers, and consumers of the Feminine Care business. Edgewell has agreed to provide Essity with certain services to support the transition of the business following the completion of the transaction.

Beginning in the first quarter of fiscal 2026, Edgewell will classify the Feminine Care business as discontinued operations. Following the transaction, Edgewell expects to incur certain stranded overhead costs, which for fiscal 2026, will be substantially offset by income generated from the provision of transition support services to Essity. For context, the Company expects the impact of Feminine Care business sale on an annualized basis to be approximately $0.40 to $0.50 cents in adjusted EPS and $35 to $45 million in adjusted EBITDA, net of such income.
