

Edgewell Personal Care Announces Pricing of Its Unsubordinated Notes Offering

02/25/21

SHELTON, Conn., Feb. 25, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Edgewell Personal Care Company (NYSE: EPC) today announced that it has priced a private offering of unsecured, unsubordinated notes in an aggregate principal amount of $500 million. The notes will mature on April 1, 2029 and will bear interest at a rate of 4.125%. The offering is expected to close on March 8, 2021, subject to customary closing conditions.

If the offering is consummated, the Company intends to use the proceeds from the offering, together with cash on hand, to redeem, satisfy and discharge the Company's existing 4.700% Senior Notes due 2022 (the "2022 Notes") and to pay fees and expenses associated therewith. This press release is not and should not be construed as a notice of redemption for the 2022 Notes.

The notes will be guaranteed by each of the Company's direct and indirect wholly owned domestic subsidiaries that guarantee the Company's obligations under its existing credit facility or becomes a guarantor of certain of the Company's other indebtedness.

The offering will be made only to persons reasonably believed to be "qualified institutional buyers" pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") and to non-U.S. persons outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act. The notes will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and may not be offered or sold absent an effective registration statement or pursuant to an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state laws.

This press release is issued pursuant to Rule 135c of the Securities Act, and does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy the notes or any other securities, and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any state or jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful.
